CLINIC SPEAKERS

CHRISTY JOHNSON-LYNCH

Iowa State University Head Coach

In her first seven years at the helm, Christy Johnson-Lynch has elevated the program to heights never seen before, culminating with NCAA Regional Final finishes in 2008 and 2011 and a pair of regional semifinal finishes (2007, 2009). Johnson-Lynch has posted a 150-73 record in her first seven years at ISU, reaching milestone win 100 faster than any coach in school history and breaking the all-time wins record in 2011. In 2009, Johnson-Lynch was named Big 12 Coach of the Year after going 17-3 in conference play. Her 2011 Cyclone squad earned their second Elite Eight birth in four years and became just the second team in program history to record 25 wins in a season. Johnson-Lynch also led the squad to a program record-tying five wins over top 25 opponents.

TOM KEATING

former Dubuque Wahlert (IA) High School Head Coach

Tom Keating led the Eagles to 11 state titles and more than 770 victories during his tenure there, becoming the first coach to win 11 state volleyball titles in the state of Iowa. Along with the 11 titles, Dubuque Wahlert earned 17 conference titles and was the state runner-up three times. This seven-time Iowa Coach of the Year was the National Coach of the Year in 2003 and was a finalist in 2001 and 2002. He has sent more than 30 players onto Division 1 programs. In 1994, he coached the Mizuno High School All-American Team. Keating is also a member of the National High School Athletic Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Keating is a sought-after clinician, having conducted clinics for five different state volleyball coaching associations, as well as a presenter at the 2007 NCAA Final Four Clinic. He is the author of four courses for Drake University's volleyball coaching distance learning program.

JOAN POWELL

National Coordinator of Volleyball Officials for the NCAA

A former high school volleyball coach at Coronado High School in Colorado Springs (CO), Powell is a highly skilled clinician, trainer and evaluator. She served the Professional Association of Volleyball Officials for five terms as president, starting in that role in 1997, and has served on the USA Volleyball Board of Directors. She was recently asked to re-join the National Association of Sports Officials Board of Directors. Joan has authored numerous officiating and coaching articles, including two chapters for two coaching books. Recently, Joan served as a technical advisor to the National Federation/USAV online coaches' course.

In 2008 Joan traveled with the Women's National Team as their Team Leader to the Pan Am Cup, the World Grand Prix and to the Olympic Games in Beijing. She was also awarded the Disney Teacher of the Year in 1998.

TERRY PETTIT

former University of Nebraska Head Coach

In the 23 years that Terry Pettit was the Head Volleyball Coach at the University of Nebraska, the Huskers won 21 conference championships while leading the nation in both All-American and Academic All-American selections. Under Terry's leadership Nebraska was ranked in the top 10 for 17 consecutive years. He led Nebraska to its first National Championship in volleyball in 1995 and when he retired from coaching in 2000, he mentored John Cook to a national championship in his first year at the helm of Nebraska Volleyball. In 1986, 1994 and 1996, Pettit was selected National Coach of the Year. In 2003 he was named All Time Great Coach by USA Volleyball. In 2010 he entered the American Volleyball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

CHRIS LAMB

Wichita State University Head Coach

Chris Lamb recently completed his 12th season at Wichita State, guiding the Shockers to their school record ninth-straight 20-win season, 10th-straight Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearance and fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011. During his tenure at Wichita State, Lamb has won over 260 games and has been named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year four times. He has guided the Shockers to two undefeated seasons in MVC play (making the 2004 squad the first Shocker team in any sport to go undefeated in the conference play), as well as a school-record 29 match winning streak.

SHELTON COLLIER

Wingate University Head Coach

Since 1997, Shelton Collier has guided Wingate to the nation's best winning percentage. The Bulldogs are 163-9 overall since 2007, good for a .948 winning percentage. Wingate has led the nation in winning percentage three times (2011, '10 and '07), while finishing third two other years. Collier has guided the 'Dogs to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments and six straight South Atlantic Conference regular season and tournament titles. Wingate has gone undefeated during conference play the last five seasons, riding a league-record 82-match SAC winning streak. The Bulldogs will open play in 2012 with a 50-match regular season winning streak. In 2011, the Bulldogs became the first team in league history to go through a regular season undefeated. Wingate notched their sixth consecutive SAC regular season title, while also taking home its sixth consecutive tournament championship.
